

Hawaiian Humane Society

People for animals. Animals for people.

YOUTH ADVOCACY & ACTIVISM VOLUNTEER

Value of this position: Drive today's youth to be animal welfare activists! Youth Advocacy & Activism Assistants (YAAA) volunteers ignite teen passion for positive change. Help high school youth develop and implement projects such as skit performances to schools and the community; lawmakers meet & greets; road side rallies; community sweeps; parade marches; community education fairs and more. Training is provided. Be part of this exciting initiative. Inspire...Ignite...Activate!

Frequency of commitment: At least one shift per week for a minimum of one year

Expected time on day of activity: Generally during the day on weekends or weekday evenings

Supervision: Report to Bonnie Osaki, Education Manager

Prerequisites/ Necessary Skills:

1. Completion of general volunteer orientation
2. Completion of YAAA training
3. Previous work with teens or project planning a plus
4. Car and driver's license